Mina(she/her) is an artist, researcher, and performer, based in South Korea.

She is interested in leftovers from digital technology and its relationship with the environment. By taking the method of practice-based research, she aims to find a way to coexist with digital debris in our digital society. Her works are presented in various forms, such as installation, audiovisual performance, online reports, and workshops.

Her background covers environmental management, sociology, interactive media design, and fine art.

Under the name of 'Vitamina', she makes and plays sounds. She is a leading member of 'Re#sister Korea', a sisterhood of 'Re#sister Rotterdam.' Re#sister is a community for female/femme/non-binary people who enjoy and like to play with electronic & experimental sounds.
